University of California, Davis

Presents:

“Women Living as Witches: Reflections on Ethics and Identities in Activist Research”

We welcome scholarly work by graduate students from all disciplines. The goal of this conference is to cross disciplinary boundaries and to bring together feminist perspectives on identity and social justice. This symposium is an opportunity for graduate students to present their ongoing original work, thesis proposals, or research papers.

Topics may include but not be limited to the following:

- » Global Feminist Issues
- » Sexual Politics
- » Gender Justice
- » Queer Studies
- » Disability Studies
- » Media and Popular Culture
- » Feminist Approaches to:
Science, Spirituality, Militarism,
Families,
Reproduction, Labor, Health or Violence
- » Feminist Critical Race Studies
- » Environmental Justice
- » Women’s Studies and Feminist
Pedagogy
- » Feminist Cultural Studies

Graduate students in the Visual and Performing Arts are invited to submit proposals for exhibits or creative performances.

To apply, please submit a one-page abstract which includes.

1. A brief description of the proposed topic.
2. An explanation of how the topic relates to the feminist analysis of identity and/or social justice and to Women’s Studies’ scholarship.
3. A thesis statement.

Individual or collective submissions are welcome. Please include your name, address, telephone number, email, institutional affiliation and the title of your paper at the top of the page. Abstract submissions should be sent via email to: aranck2012@fau.edu.

All abstracts must be received by Monday, February 17, 2014

Final decisions on the submitted abstracts will be sent no later than February 28, 2014.
