School Social Work: A Look Into the Profession

EXPANDING RESEARCH AND PRACTICE TO PREPARE EDUCATORS FOR THE FUTURE

This colloquium and guided discussion will be led by

Atensia Earp Bowen, LCSW

FAU Phyllis and Harvey Sandler School of Social Work

Session Abstract

Social workers provide therapy to individuals, groups, families and couples. They also work with larger communities and institutions through advocacy, research and policy change. Social work expertise can be broad or specific, with the most popular social work careers being in the medical field and public health, mental health, substance use/treatment, child welfare, school social work and corporate engagement. In this session, participants will learn about the basics of the social work profession, with a special focus on school social work.
