MASTER'S PROGRAMS

Master of Fine Arts with Major in Studio/Fine Arts

The M.F.A. with Major in Studio/Fine Arts is designed to further the conceptual development, aesthetic presentation, technical skill and career goals of the M.F.A. candidates. The M.F.A. is offered with a concentration in Graphic Design (Davie campus) or a concentration in Studio Art in the following studio areas of study: Ceramics, Drawing, Painting, Photography, Printmaking and Sculpture (Boca Raton campus) and Book Arts (Boca Raton and Davie campuses). These paths of study are designed to incorporate courses from the range of studio areas should the student desire this type of cross-disciplinary approach and flexibility. Graduates of the programs will be prepared for careers as professional artists. The programs will provide opportunities for students to develop their interests and talents at the terminal degree level.

Master of Fine Arts with Major in Studio/Fine Arts—Graphic Design Concentration

The Master of Fine Arts with a Graphic Design concentration engages students in an individual pursuit to expand their knowledge of visual communication design systems with a focus on furthering development toward a career in design education and/or professional practice. Students and faculty from diverse cultural, educational and professional experiences come together to engage in critical discourse that challenges and strengthens each student's understanding of communication theory, research methodology and design problem-solving approaches. Encouraged to identify and expand their own voices as designers, students take a combination of graduate design studios, seminars, art history courses and directed independent study projects, culminating in a graduate thesis project, exhibition and document. Graduate students are expected to take a leadership role in the department and in their interactions with undergraduate students.

Admission Requirements

1. Bachelor of Fine Arts, Bachelor of Arts or equivalent degree from an accredited college or university or, for international students, an institution recognized in its own country as preparing students for further study at the graduate level. Degrees in graphic design or visual communication design are preferred. Candidates from other curricula will be considered based on abilities demonstrated in portfolio, statement of intent and space available. Two years' experience in the graphic design practice is preferred.
2. The minimum University admission requirements are either a "B" average or better in all work attempted while registered as an upper-division student working for a bachelor's degree; or a graduate degree from an accredited institution.
3. Graduate admission application submitted online to FAU's Graduate College. Application is available at www.fau.edu/graduate.
4. Official college transcript(s) submitted to FAU's Graduate College.
