- 2021 Guest Speaker: Community Conversations Event: Rethinking Gangs
For this event I outlined the ecological context of gang membership at the individual and community levels, and discussed, along with my co-host novel ways of addressing gang problems with an eye on converting toxic masculinity into prosocial masculinity and preserving racial and ethnic identity throughout the process.

University Service

- 2021 Event Host: “How to FAU”
Along with a team of graduate and undergraduate student volunteers and Ellen Rondina from SSW, I facilitated a mask-making workshop with a group of 130 incoming freshman. The Event was one of several “breakout session” experiences administered by university groups, teams, and clubs. I participated on behalf of the PJHR, having funded the session through our PJHR working group on art and social change.
- 2021 Event Host: FUTUROS Retreat
Along with a team of graduate and undergraduate student volunteers and Ellen Rondina from SSW, I facilitated a mask-making workshop with a group of 50 incoming Latinx freshman. The Event was one of several “breakout session” experiences designed to build social networks, develop identities, and engage Latinx students with Latinx faculty members. I participated on behalf of the PJHR, having funded the session through our PJHR working group on art and social change.
- 2020 Table Host: FAU’s Annual Graduate Recruitment Fair
Hosted information booth (online format due to COVID-19) for current FAU undergraduate students thinking about applying for graduate programs
- 2018 Panel Judge: 3MT (Three Minute Thesis) Competition
Evaluated and provided feedback for very short-format research presentations by 10 undergraduate and graduate competition finalists
- 2018 Table Host: FAU Explorer Day
Hosted information booth for local high school students thinking about applying for undergraduate programs

Community Service

- 2023 Career Day Event Table Host (Children’s Harbor)
Spoke with over 50 young adults in the process of aging-out of the child welfare system about college life, research opportunities, graduate school, and career goals.
- 2021-2022 Youth Mentor, Project 18 (Children’s Home Society)
One-on-one mentor to system-involved youth during the process of “aging-out” of state custody in child protective services in Palm Beach County, FL. My primary role in this capacity is providing emotional, educational, and professional support for a young man in the process of competing high school, living independently, and embarking on a career.
- 2020-Current Guardian Ad Litem, Palm Beach County
Working with attorneys, caseworkers, and volunteers, visiting and advocating for specific youth in the custody of Florida Department of Children and Families (DCF) to help ensure youth safety, monitor their case progression, and address youth needs as they arise.
- 2018 Guest Speaker: Palm Beach County Juvenile Probation Summer Program
“Paving the Path from Juvenile Probation to College.” In collaboration with my colleague Dr. Lisa Dario, I led a guided discussion with juvenile probationers about their plans for the future, personal goals, and how college can be a useful way to connect those dots.

AWARDS AND FELLOWSHIPS

- 2017 Fellowship: Inaugural Child Abuse Research Institute (NIHCD)
Funded by National Institute of Child and Human Development and led by Drs. Cathy Spatz-Widom and Melissa Jonson-Reid, this week-long research gathering allowed me to network with an interdisciplinary group of emerging and senior child abuse researchers including medical doctors, psychologists, social workers, and criminologists from around the country.
